WELCOME TO MID-COAST Maine

Last year Maine turned 200 as it became the 23rd state on March 15, 1820. We were excited to celebrate this momentous occasion Mainer-style with fireworks, festivities, and history re-enactments throughout the state, but the arrival of Covid-19 changed all that. This setback, however, did not dampen our spirits. The pride we feel about our wonderful state shines through no matter what.

Just like you'll learn soon enough, there's no stopping the beautiful memories you will capture in Midcoast Maine. Whether it's our history, beautiful sunrises and sunsets over the sea, adventures on water and land, thousands of miles of rocky coastline, lighthouses, charming villages, freshly caught seafood, brilliant foliage, the mountains or winter adventures, we welcome you to the area. Take time to breathe in the fresh air, while creating joyful memories.

Our History

In the 1620's, a number of English settlements were established along the coast of Maine, but most failed. As Maine entered the 18th century, only a half dozen European settlements had survived. Loyalist and Patriot forces contended for Maine's territory during the American Revolution. During the War of 1812, the largely-undefended eastern region of Maine was occupied by British forces, but returned to the United States following failed British offensives on the northern border, mid-Atlantic and south which produced a peace treaty that was to include dedicated land on the Michigan peninsula for Native American people.

The Damariscotta-Newcastle region has a rich history that includes all of the chapters you'd expect – boatbuilding, military history and a maritime culture that reads like a novel. The mid coast's Twin Villages of Damariscotta/Damariscotta Mills and Newcastle are uniquely positioned along the banks of the Damariscotta River, which once hosted a variety of boatbuilding operations beginning in the mid 1700's. As King George of England reserved the great tall white pines of Maine for the Royal Navy's ship masts, an industry began, which included boatbuilding, sawmills, lumberyards, blacksmith, and rigging shops. Schooners, brigs and sailing ships were built for New England merchants and were widely acclaimed for their speed and strength. The area produced more vessels than any other state in the nation at that time, and those vessels were sailed around the world.

History buffs will feel right at home in the area, and have a number of sites to explore that reach back hundreds of years. Some notable sights include the Colonial Pemaquid Historic site, which consists of seventeenth-century Fort William Henry and eighteen-century Fort Frederick. Fort William Henry was the largest of its kind in New England when originally built in 1692 by the colony of Massachusetts. The original structure was destroyed in 1696 by New France in the Siege of Pemaquid, but was reconstructed in 1908. The Friends of Colonial Pemaquid share many historical re-enactments from musket demonstrations, pirate strikes to musical entertainment from Maine St. Andrews Pipes and Drums at the historic site beginning Memorial Day Weekend through Labor Day weekend. Visit Whaleback, an 11-acre property in Damariscotta owned by the Maine Bureau of Parks and Lands and operated cooperatively with Coastal Rivers. The site once contained a massive oyster shell heap or midden formed over a period of more than 1,000 years by Native Americans. The shells were processed for chicken feed in the late 1800's, leaving behind just a fraction of the original mounds. Interpretive storyboards relate the history of the middens, their accumulation and destruction, and also share stories of the Upper Damariscotta River.

Visit Castle Tucker in Wiscasset, an historic, ornate mansion with tours, offering insight into the life of its 19th-century owner, a sea captain. Other sites to see include Fort Edgecomb Historic site in Edgecomb, the Thompson Ice House in South Bristol, and the Maine Maritime Museum in Bath.

FOUR SEASONS TO LOVE

From pumpkins and oysters to holiday lights and ice harvest, each season brings a new slate of offerings for both locals and visitors of the Damariscotta Region. In addition to our Calendar of Events (page 43) with the seasonal schedule of happenings in the area, be sure to look into some of these off-season celebrations.

SPRING

Spring is an exciting time in Maine as the days stay lighter a bit longer, lilacs, forsythia and apple trees come into bloom, and lobsters are plentiful and meaty after a long winter in cold waters.

As the ground begins to thaw, locals ditch their winter boots and head out to hike mid-coast Maine's many state parks and recreational areas. Restaurants and other seasonal businesses begin to open their doors along the coast.

The "Alewives Festival" marks the first festival of the season on Memorial Day Weekend. Local alewives, sea-run fish that are members of the herring family, spend most of their lives at sea but return each May and June to spawn in Damariscotta Lake. The Fish Ladder, originally built in 1807, has recently been restored and is the central focus as it provides an up close and personal viewing of the alewives as they work their way up the ladder, migrating from sea to lake. The festival is filled with fun, adventures, music, educational exhibits, a 5K run and food to tantalize and intrigue the entire family.

In late May, fields of purple, lavender, pink and white blossoms can be found throughout the area. Take a drive to Northern Point Road in Round Pond to the Lupine Field or drive by the Newcastle Inn to view the gorgeous lupines growing around their gardens.

SUMMER

Summer in Maine is like a smorgasbord – there are so many attractions you might not know where to start. From kayaking, river cruises, whale watching, hiking, birding, swimming in the lakes, going to the beach, visiting a lighthouse, enjoying a round of golf at Wawenock Golf Club in Walpole, to enjoying one of Maine's many islands, the options are endless. For a unique Maine experience, hop aboard the Bennie Alice at Pier 6 in Boothbay Harbor and enjoy a narrated scenic cruise while you take in Maine's breathtaking coastline. You will arrive at Cabbage Island where you will enjoy a traditional Down East clambake. Book a Hardy Boat Cruise, recently honored with the "Governors Award for Tourism Excellence" to Monhegan Island where you will experience the remains of a shipwreck plus breathtaking views of the Atlantic ocean. Balmy Days Cruises offers unforgettable Maine tours, Mackerel fishing trips and sailing expeditions.

For the adventurous at heart, enjoy a day sea kayaking along Maine's rocky scenic coast. Midcoast Kayak on Main Street in Damariscotta offers half day, full day and multi-island overnight camping experiences.

Bristol's rich history lends itself to a multitude of events and happenings on the Pemaquid Peninsula. The annual Olde Bristol Days celebration each August on the Old Fort Grounds at Colonial Pemaquid draws the community and visitors together with a weekend filled with a parade, lobster boat races, vintage car shows, a chicken barbecue dinner, fireworks and so much more. This is a good ole-fashioned, small town celebration.

As the weather begins to cool down, the smell of fall arrives bringing burning wood, sounds of crunching leaves, tastes of crisp apples and sweet cider, and the brilliant sight of yellows, reds and oranges of fall foliage.

In October on Columbus Day weekend, ginormous gourds flood the streets of Damariscotta and Newcastle for the annual Damariscotta Pumpkinfest & Regatta. Tens of thousands of visitors from around the world arrive for a fun filled family weekend. Imagine 70 decorated Atlantic Giant Pumpkins lining the streets, a giant pumpkin drop, pumpkin bake off, pumpkin parade, pumpkin derby and people racing inside giant pumpkins with motors at the pumpkin regatta. The weekend is a foodie's paradise of regional delicacies, music, and good old-fashioned fun!

Celebrate autumn in the Sheepscot Valley at the annual fall festival at Wiscasset, Waterville & Farmington Railway Museum. Enjoy steam train rides, Model T rail car rides, a pumpkin patch, children's games, live music and hayrides.

WINTER

As the days become shorter and temperatures drop, Maine in winter becomes a special place, especially enjoyed by locals. What's not to love about curling up in front of a warm fire, enjoying a cup of hot cocoa, or venturing outside to enjoy the great outdoors. Maine has more than a dozen ski areas, 14,000 miles of groomed trails for snowmobiling, and lakes and ponds for ice fishing.

Thanksgiving weekend, the Twin Villages of Damariscotta and Newcastle come alive with the Villages of Light Festival featuring the Parade of Lights.

Santa's arrival in a horse drawn sleigh, and Main street lined with decorated Christmas trees. Jake Day panoramas appear in the windows of Milling Around Antiques & Gifts. The handiwork of this beloved local artist becomes magical when viewed after dark.

Be sure to bundle up for Coastal Maine Botanical Gardens in Boothbay for Gardens Aglow. New England's biggest and brightest light display runs from late November through the end of the calendar year and features more than 650,000 lights! Spend time before and after your visit to enjoy the Boothbay Festival of Lights.

The traditional ice harvest at the Thompson Ice House in South Bristol is a fun-filled event for all ages. The free event attracts crowds every February to participate or watch as a crew of volunteers cut large blocks of ice from Thompson Pond using antique tools. The ice harvested during the event is later used to make ice cream for the Thompson Ice House Preservation Corp's annual ice cream social in July.

Whatever season you enjoy, mid-coast Maine has something for everyone!

“NAPA VALLEY OF Oysters”

The Damariscotta River in mid-coast Maine is quickly earning the reputation as the “Napa Valley of Oysters.”

Thousands of years ago, shell heaps made up mostly of oyster shells lined the banks of the Damariscotta River (old Abenaki for “river of many fishes”) deposited there by Native Americans.

These oyster shell heaps tell a story about how the aboriginal people feasted on this delicacy.

The European settlers in the 1700s built mills, dams and shipyards, which led to erosion along the banks of the river and waste, which eventually led to the disappearance of the oyster.

Today, the 19-mile long tidal river offers undeniable beauty in addition to its edible bounty, providing a continual pulse within the area. More than 80 percent of Maine oysters are farmed on the river, which boasts the perfect climate for harvesting oysters. The waters are cleaner and warmer with the right level of salinity and a fresh water mix. Commercial oyster growing and the prolific spawning have brought back the wild American oyster to perfection.

You too can become a connoisseur of oysters, which are offered at most restaurants in the region. For a unique experience, take a sunset river cruise up the Damariscotta River where you will enjoy oysters as you cruise past oyster farms, witness seals lounging on boulders, and catch the majestic site of an eagle soaring overhead. If a river cruise isn't your thing, take a drive to Barbara Scully's Oyster & Lobster Market where you can grab several varieties of local oysters, clams, lobsters, shucking tools, gifts, and new this year - sauces and frozen prepared foods! Non-contact curbside pick-up is available, or you can browse the shop.

If you are in town, stop in the Shuck Station in Newcastle to sample a variety of oysters and unique sauces picnic table style while listening to local musicians.

In late September, on the banks of the Damariscotta River, the Pemaquid Oyster Festival is in full swing with educational exhibits, boat trips, local vendors, music, and loads of delicious Pemaquid Oysters. Typically, more than 10,000 oysters are shucked during the one-day festival, benefitting the Edward A. Myers Marine Conservation Fund.

Come find out what makes these oysters so special!

LOCAL ART AND CULTURE

The list of famous artists who have been drawn to the Maine Coast is long, and it's no wonder. Most people who visit once begin planning their next visit before they leave, and sometimes the return is permanent! The area is beautiful in all seasons and the drama of our coastal landscape strikes the artist in all of us.

The Damariscotta-Newcastle region is filled with several galleries and creative sources to appreciate art and even inspire yourself. Several artist-owned galleries and antique shops are located on Bristol Road, just a short distance away from the village.

The downtown Damariscotta area features several traditional fine art galleries. Gifts at 136 has original art and crafts from more than 75 Maine artists. For the creative at heart, you can design your own jewelry masterpiece at ABOCA Beads & Jewelry or have them create one for you.

As you begin your drive to the peninsula to visit the lighthouse, stop in the Pemaquid Craft Co-op, where nearly 60 crafters display their juried wares. You'll have a hard time deciding what treasure to bring home. Your next stop before arriving at the lighthouse will be the Saltwater Artists Gallery where every summer, up to 25 artists exhibit paintings, pastels, prints, photography as well as a variety of 3-D work including sculptures, glass, pottery, woodturning and jewelry.

Entertainment abounds in this area, and we are lucky to have diverse and ever-changing access to many cultural events. Several choral and musical ensembles call this area home, including the DaPonte String Quartet, Tapestry Singers, St. Cecilia Chamber Choir, Lincoln County Community Theater, and the Heartwood Regional Theater Company. The historic Lincoln Theater offers movies, live performances and live simulcast concert, opera and film showings all year long, featuring The Metropolitan Opera, world-renowned ballet companies like the Bolshoi and New York City Ballet and the Royal Theatre.

Bibliophiles will be pleased to find a book shop with a bustling café and the Skidompha Library right on Main Street. Don't miss Skidompha's Secondhand Book shop for even more take-home treasures!

Maine has more than 65 lighthouses, which have become icons of coastal Maine, luring tens of thousands of visitors to the state each year. The mid-coast area alone has 21 lighthouses adorning its coastline. Today, most lighthouses serve an aesthetic purpose versus a practical one, however, the one thing that bridges history are the stories of shipwrecks, survival, and secrets hidden inside each one.

The Pemaquid Point Lighthouse, commissioned by John Quincy Adams in 1827, has the Fisherman's Museum on the first floor in the Keeper's House. It has its own piece of history at the end of the peninsula. Located on the west side of the entrance to Muscongus Bay, its pyramidal tower stands 79 feet above sea level with a light that is visible for 14 nautical miles. Built in 1835 and automated in 1934, the Lighthouse received its first fourth-order Fresnel lens in 1956. The lighthouse was the first in Maine to be automated, rather than being hosted by a keeper in 1934. Visitor's can climb the winding stairwell to the top of the historic Point Lighthouse.

Each year the United States Coast Guard, the Maine Office of Tourism and the American Lighthouse Foundation attract between 15,000 to 18,000 visitors annually, offering the general public a unique opportunity to climb and learn about more than two dozen historic Maine lights. The 2021 Maine Open Lighthouse Day is September 11 from 9:00 a.m. -3:00 p.m. The lighthouses listed below can be easily visited from the mid-coast area. Check out the website for a complete listing of lighthouses that are a part of the 2021 Open Lighthouse day at www.lighthouse-foundation.org.

Jake Day created his enchanting, carved dioramas, depicting a variety of holiday scenes, during World War II to preoccupy himself while his sons were away at war. Every December, from 1950's through the 1970's, he adorned his Bristol Road home with them and many traveled great distances to peek into Jake's magnificent windows. Since 1998, the family has displayed the dioramas each year during the month of December at the Day Homestead on the Bristol Road in Damariscotta and beginning in 2017 the tradition has continued in the windows of Milling Around Antiques & Gifts. The handiwork of this beloved local artist becomes truly magical when viewed after dark. Enjoy this complimentary Christmas treasure! FMI: 207- 563-1210
